

Information security policy Doro group

Doro strives for a secure handling of information and continually lowers the risks by a systematic approach to information security.

We make sure we follow legal requirements and customer demands.

The alarm receiving centres and their support functions have extra high demands for confidentiality and availability, which means our processes in these areas must be very robust. We will always have:

- Strict access control, both physical and electronic
- Secure handling of personal data
- Crisis planning including tests of scenarios
- Backups and tests of restore
- Non Disclosure agreements with employees and relevant suppliers
- Guideline for behavior and training of awareness
